

If you like the idea of working for a multi-award winning Event Support company and travelling throughout the UK and Europe with a great team of people, here's what we're looking for:

- Holder of a full UK driving licence with good standard of driving
- Good manual skills and a practical nature
- An enthusiastic and flexible attitude to work
- Self-motivation, commitment and the ability to work to tight deadlines
- Presentability – and the confidence to communicate with anyone
- Ability to work on your own initiative as well as part of a team
- Willingness to work away from home for several days a week
- Availability for full-time work between April and September
- A good level of physical fitness

Work is full-time, seasonal between April and September, hours can be long and the work challenging, but in return you'll get variety, independence and the chance to work with great people at great events for world-class clients.

Established in 1982, TRO is a live events and integrated marketing services company with offices in West London, Stockport and Norwich. We deliver in excess of 1,500 events every year on behalf of our clients.

We are consistent winners of prestigious industry awards for the quality of work we deliver. We strive to be the most effective, professional and efficient experiential agency in the UK; the best of the best by any measure.

Event Operator

How do you like the sound of:

- Joining a multi-award winning Event Support company
- Working with world-class brand names
- Experiencing travel around the UK and Europe
- Enjoying a friendly and fun working environment
- Receiving specialist training in the events industry
- Having the opportunity to develop a career in events

Looking for a bit of variety in your life?

As an Event Operator for TRO you won't be doing the average nine-to-five, you won't be stuck in an office – and you won't get bored.

But you will be part of a team providing the best logistics services in the country for live marketing events. You'll be well rewarded and trained, have great fun along the way and work for world class clients to boot.

As a TRO Event Operator you'll travel all over the UK and occasionally abroad to motor shows, track events, sporting events, product launches, ride-and-drives, shopping centre promotions and county shows, where you'll set up our clients' promotional stands and equipment. You'll transport our clients' stands, trailers and resources to, from and between event venues and manage the stands when required, assisting both clients and members of the public.

TRO employs in the region of 80 Operators every season and offers between 25 and 35 new positions each year. Although working on a temporary contract, we'll need your full-time commitment between April and September.

Don't just take our word for it...

"The training I received was first class and a credit to TRO. Throughout my working life I have never received that amount of comprehensive training".

"The work can be challenging at times, but something you can really get your teeth into and is always enjoyable".

"I enjoy the freedom, variety and independency of the job, going to different places and working outside".

"As an Event Operator for TRO I've been to so many new places and met loads of new people".

"Working with clients such as BMW, Lucozade Sport, Vauxhall, Land Rover and Nike gives you fantastic experience and plenty to be proud of".

"I love driving and with TRO I have been lucky enough to drive some great cars and have had the opportunity to progress my driving licence to HGV Class One"

Great Benefits

- Generous daily rates, subsistence, overnight allowance and skills enhancements
- Paid holiday
- Specific events training
- Travel throughout the UK and Europe
- Potential to return year after year
- Valuable experience in a number of areas
- The chance to meet a variety of different people
- Uniform provided

Maybe even stay a while...

There are plenty of opportunities for self-development and career progression within TRO.

Every year Event Operators have the opportunity to progress through LGV, Defensive Driver, Health & Safety, Forklift and First Aid training. Many of our Event Operators just don't want to leave, and some have progressed to senior positions within the company.

TRO holds the Investors in People accreditation and is committed to training and development.
